Dear Mr. Uzun,

On behalf of the Express Publishing family we would like to wish Prosveshcheniye a happy 90th anniversary. We are delighted to celebrate this historic landmark with your company.

Throughout our 15 years of collaboration with Prosveshcheniye, we have had the pleasure of working with a team of highly professional, dedicated and passionate individuals. Your continued support has been invaluable in helping us to meet the highest educational standards and inspire new, innovative approaches to language instruction.

Furthermore, during our many visits to Russia, we have been able to work face to face and share some unforgettable memories with many of you. Our only regret is that we cannot be closer to you this year.

Even though 2020 has presented us with new and unprecedented challenges, our partnership has remained strong and we are as determined as ever to provide the best possible educational services for our clients.

We hope to be able to join you in Russia very soon and we wish for many years of prosperous collaboration to come.

With appreciation,

Jenny Dooley
